

ILM Level 4 Management

Suitable for those moving into middle management. You will have responsibility for operational processes but will be more removed from day to day line management. Our qualification develops the skills to take on higher level responsibilities like planning and implementing change.

Benefits for the learner

- Develop your core leadership skills
- Practice the skills to plan and implement an operational plan
- Improve your working relationships
- Achieve a recognised qualification
- Access to a wealth of resources through Moodle - our online learning platform
- Receive a minimum of 12 months membership to the Institute of Leadership & Management

Benefits for the employer

- Develop middle managers with proven skills in operational management
- Managers who can assess and manage their personal and professional development
- Range of optional units to tailor the qualification to your business needs
- Promote a culture of organisational learning and development
- Our qualifications have a strong focus on workplace performance, to deliver well-rounded managers

What you will study

You will study four mandatory units. The first unit looks at personal and professional development, helping you identify your development needs and how to fulfil them. The second unit delves into the theory of leadership and the practical application of how to inspire and engage people. In the third unit learn how to develop and implement an operational plan. The final unit helps you develop your working relationships with key stakeholders. We will work with you and your employer to find the best-fit from the optional units offered in the qualification.

Essential Skills

Welsh Government is committed to raising the levels of Essential Skills across Wales. Communication, Digital Literacy and Application of Number qualifications are an integral element to the funded apprenticeship frameworks.

These are usually delivered through workshops at one of our centres and will be planned well in advance. If you have completed Essential Skills previously or are able to provide suitable evidence, such as GCSE certificates or similar, you may be exempt from completing this element of the qualification.
